NEW MOBILITIES IN ASIA

Edited by Bernardo E. Brown and Brenda S.A. Yeoh

Asian Migrants and Religious Experience

From Missionary Journeys to Labor Mobility

Typically, scholars approach migrants' religions as a safeguard of cultural identity, something that connects migrants to their communities of origin. This ethnographic anthology challenges that position by reframing the religious experiences of migrants as a transformative force capable of refashioning narratives of displacement into journeys of spiritual awakening and missionary calling. These essays explore migrants' motivations in support of an argument that to travel inspires a search for new meaning in religion.
